VOL. IX. NO. 15.

CHICAGO, SATURDAY, JANUARY 17, 1903.

PRICE 5 CENTS

GOSSIP OF THE TURF.

The formal lease of the course at Bennings to the Westchester Racing Association simply means that the course will be under the direction of that association while preserving the name and officials which have made it popular in the District of Columbia and with a view to increasing its usefulness in the racing world.

The Washington Jockey Club, having a floating debt and also a mortgage on its property, and being unable to pay for the same, made an arrangement with August Belmont by which Mr. Belmont was to pay off all indebtedness, to pay each shareholder full par value of his stock and to take in return the property of the Washington Jockey Club.

A new organization was then formed, with a capitalization of $200,000. The stock of this organization, practically owned by Mr. Belmont, was bought by the Westchester Racing Association, except such shares as former shareholders had preferred to take. The Washington Jockey Club then leased its property to the Westchester Racing Association for the term of twenty years on a guaranteed payment of interest on the stock. The organization, therefore, is simply the Washington Jockey Club of the District of Columbia, with the same officials as heretofore, but the controlling interest is in the hands of the Westchester Racing Association.

This was done in order that the property might not be hampered with any debts, that the stockholders might be assured a good return on their stock and that the Washington Jockey Club, backed by an organization of the importance of the Westchester Racing Association, could be in a position to hold racing meetings of more importance, giving better stakes and prizes.

Emil Herz has received a letter from Sire Brothers, New York, asking him to price McChesney and Golden Rule. He says that he did not make a price, because he did not think that Sire Brothers would consider any price he might make. As matters have turned out recently it looks as though Durnell & Herz have about decided to keep McChesney and take a chance of winning some big bets on him in the early spring events in the west the coming season.

H. M. Ziegler, the Cincinnati theatrical manager and turfman, has offered John Welch, Spring Station, Ky., $3,500 for the chestnut two-year-old colt by The Commoner—Rosa Masso, by Rossington. Welch asks $7,000. This colt was a sensational yearling last fall, working a quarter in 22½ seconds. He is now in Dan O'Brien's stable at the Kentucky Association track, having been shipped there several days ago. He has many valuable engagements.

Steps have been taken to throw the Kenilworth racetrack, owned by the Buffalo Racing Association, into bankruptcy. An official document has been filed in the supreme court by a majority of the directors of the association setting forth that the stock, effects and other property of the corporation are not sufficient to afford a reasonable security to those who may deal with it, and that it will be beneficial to the interests of the stockholders and creditors that the same be dissolved. All persons interested in the corporation are called upon to show cause why the corporation should not be dissolved. Whether, as a result of this action, the debts to horsemen and officials, as well as to the Jockey Club, will thus be wiped out, is a much discussed question. It is the second time in about five years that owners of horses have been disappointed in the matter of prompt and full payment of purses and stakes by racing associations in or about Buffalo, and it is beginning to become tiresome to them, they declare.

W. L. Simmons, of George Wilkes fame, who bred the crack three-year-old Colonel Bill, chief breadwinner of the older division of J. E. Madden's racing stable of 1902, and sold by that successful turfman to L. V. Bell for a reported price of $14,000, has a full brother to the winner of the Belle Meade Stakes, Ocean, Omnium and Oriental handicaps, which, from the high form he showed in his trials last fall as a yearling, gives every indication of making even a superior horse to his sensational brother. Unlike Colonel Bill, which is brown in color, this two-year-old is a chestnut, seemingly having bred back to his grandsire, Prince Charlie, as both his sire and dam are an opposite color.

Entries to the stakes to be raced for at the spring meeting of the Latonia Jockey Club are all in. The events have filled remarkably well, and the management is rightfully gratified at the class of the material which will make the racing. There is a very healthy increase in the number of nominations as compared to the very excellent list of last year, and a wonderful showing over the meeting prior to that of 1901. A total of 798 entries was received, apportioned as follows:

Clipsetta	85	Hotel	70
Harold	83	Steeplechase	26
Trophy	108	Derby (1904)	103
Brewers	76	Oaks (1904)	86
Merchants	74
Decoration	86	Total	798

W. C. Whitney has decided to make no further effort to have his Derby winner, Volodyovski, retrieve the laurels lost during 1902, when he lost every one of the eleven races in which he started, and the horse has been sent to the stud farm of his breeder, Lady Meux, who has announced that the race courses will know him no more. From a business standpoint it is considered by turf experts most unfortunate that a racer of Volodyovski's admitted high class as a three-year-old should have gone through his four-year-old career without having earned at least one bracket, but such was his destiny.

The racing string belonging to Milton Young, one of Kentucky's most famous breeders, which was moved from the farm at Lexington to training quarters on the old Kentucky Association course, is doing well under the charge of John Rodegap. He is only giving them their early preparation, however. On March 1 they will be shipped to G. C. Baker, at St. Louis, Mo. A list of the horses follows:

Dark Mystery, b. c. 3, by Indio—Katie Fletcher.
First Chip, ch. c. 3, by First Mate—Chippie.
Rampooza, ch. c. 3, by Wadsworth—Mischieff.
Second Mate, b. c. 3, by First Mate—Vera.
Lamp Cloth, b. c. 3, by Lamplighter—Long Cloth.
Jean Gravier, br. g. 3, by George Kinney—Hilda III.
Black Bird, blk. f. 2, by Pirate of Penzance—The Chough.

ST. LOUIS STAKES.

Attention is called to the fact that the big list of stakes offered by the St. Louis Fair Association will close for entries at midnight of today. They include the $50,000 World's Fair Handicap and the St. Louis Derby of 1904 and 1905, as well as the fixtures that are to be decided this year and all owners who have delayed making entries are cautioned to do so today. The conditions of the stakes are fully set forth in this issue of DAILY RACING FORM.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

R. and S. Monce, La. Prince Lief did not win the Latonia Derby. He won the National Derby of 1895 at St. Louis with Ben Brush second and Ben Eder third. This may be the race you have in mind.

At New Orleans yesterday Corblett's Bay was claimed by K. D. Orr for $1,115 and War Cry was purchased by Ed Trotter for $800.

C. H. C., Chicago, Iroquois, an American-bred and owned horse, won the Epsom Derby of 1881.

Subscriber, St. Louis, Mo. The Morris entry opened at 1 to 2 and closed at 9 to 20.

Time, 24½, 50, 1:18½.

Winner—B. g. by George Kinney—Princess (Princess Louise) (trained by A. Zimmer). Went to post at 2:03. At post 7 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second driving. Little Jack Horner beat the barrier, broke from the outside and Fuller kept him in the good going all the way. Lighthunt began slowly, but closed a big gap and finished very fast, caught Dr. Scharff tiring and got second place in the last stride. Dr. Scharff ran well, but was used up in chasing the leaders in the first half. Alpaca and Corblett's Bay quit when it came to a drive. Okla bolted to the outside at the turn into the homestretch. Dr. Gurnsey could not extend himself in the going.

Scratched—29325 Miss Hume, 106.

Little Jack Horner, show, evens. Lighthunt, show, 1 to 2. Dr. Scharff, show, 2 to 1.

Time, 25½, 52, 1:18½, 1:46½, 2:00½.

Winner—Ch. g. by Forester—Lottie Carpenter (trained by J. Kahn). Went to post at 2:38. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second the same. Simoon was at home in the going, wore the leaders down while rounding the far turn, took command without much effort and came away easily in the stretch run. Ermack came wide at the turn into the homestretch and outgamed Eliza Dillon when it came to a drive. The latter was doing her best at the end to stall off Macon. Battiste let go Macon's head in the last furlong and he swerved all over the track. Maple could not extend himself in the going.

Scratched—37014 Frank Jones, 96; 37035 Wissendine, 94.

Overweights—Ermack, 3 pounds.

Simoon, show, 1 to 2. Ermack, show, 2 to 1. Eliza Dillon, show, out. Maple, show, 1 to 2.

Winner—Br. c. by G. W. Johnson—Floroon (trained by J. A. Kyle). Went to post at 3:06. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second the same. Ahumada outclassed his field and was under restraint for the entire trip. Uranium liked the going and was easily the best of the others. Star and Garter was hard ridden all the way. The race was a procession throughout.

Scratched—(36956) Athlana, 113; 37034 Glennievis, 112; 37000 Frank Rice, 106; 36209 Hamlock, 103; 36932 Silver Fringe, 101.

Winner—Br. or blk. c. by Tehachapi—Susie Nell (trained by R. E. Watkins). Went to post at 3:38. At post 5 minutes. Start poor. Won driving; second handily. Kaloma was outrun in the first half, but saved ground at the turn into the homestretch, caught Mrs. Frank Foster at the furlong post and outgamed her in the final drive. Mrs. Frank Foster was used too much in chasing Frank Rice and tired from it at the finish. Alyar ran a good, game race, caught Pageant tiring and beat him out in the last stride. Frank Rice showed much early speed and is probably regaining his spring form.

Scratched—36788 McWilliams, 117; 36616 My Surprise, 100; 34597 Ran After, 100.

Overweights—Apple Bloom, 2 pounds.

Winner—B. f. by Albert—Marie, by Glenelg (trained by J. A. Gray).

Went to post at 4:09. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second the same. In the going Amigari outclassed her field. She was under restraint to the far turn, where she came up on the outside and challenged Tioga at the furlong post, shook her off when called on and drew away at the end. Tioga was at home in the going and ran to her best form. Buccleuth ran well to the stretch, then tired as if short. Tom Kingsley quit when called on. He appears to have lost all form.

Winner—Br. g. by Boundless—Parolee (trained by J. Lowe).

Went to post at 4:38. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second the same. Boundlee was at home in the going, went around the leaders at the far turn and came away without much effort in the stretch run. Joe Lesser ran his race and was driving to the limit all of the last furlong in an effort to overtake Boundlee. Chickadee broke from the extreme outside and showed early speed, but tired when called on. Shut Up also showed speed, but quit when it came to a drive. Pyrrho finished well, but did not run to his best form.

Winner—Br. c. by Wernberg—Miss Goslin (trained by L. Newell).
Went to post at 2:15. At post 4 minutes. Start fair. Won easily; second the same. J. H. Bennett beat the barrier and Troxler made the most of the advantage. His mount sustained his speed unexpectedly well and was clearly best. Instar raced into prominence quickly and finished fast under a weak ride. Isabelita closed a big gap early and finished fast and gamely. Stunts was carried out on the stretch turn, but finished going fast. Alta G. was nearly left, took the longest way around and ran a cracking good race. There was much crowding on the stretch turn in which Brennus was forced back.
Scratched—36956 Philaenus, 106.

Time, 1:11.

Winner—B. c. by Golden Garter—Pink Cottage (trained by M. J. Daly).
Went to post at 2:39. At post 5 minutes. Start fair. Won driving; second the same. Golden Cottage ran a good race, was lucky throughout and outstayed Erema and Mildred Schultz after a long stretch drive. Erema got off running and led to the stretch, where an incapable jockey made a mess of the finish. Mildred Schultz, away poorly and carried wide on the stretch turn by the winner, ran a game race, but failed to quite get up. Jim Gore II. was bumped on the far turn and fell out, losing six lengths, but came around on the outside and finished with a rush and was probably best. Evander went surprisingly well on a fast track and must be in very good form. Tyrannus, away badly, closed up ground steadily. Breton and The Miller ran good races. Hungarian is out of place in sprints and had no chance at the start.
Scratched—37070 King Dellis, 106; 36714 Troy, 101; 37002 Buzzer, 98.
Corrected weights—Golden Cottage, 106; Evander, 100.
Overweights—Mildred Schultz, 5 pounds; Tyrannus, 2; Sailor, 3; Mike Murphy, 5.
Golden Cottage, show, 3 to 2. Erema, show, evens. Mildred Schultz, show, 2 to 5.

Winner—B. g. by Flatlands—Lizzie M., by Eolus (trained by J. Dixon).
Went to post at 3:09. At post 6 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second the same. Poorlands was lucky, stole a long winning lead early and stuck to his work well. Mike Rice appeared and was evidently short and should improve greatly over this showing. He ran well on the flat, but lost ground when taking hurdles. Duke of York got away badly and ran on the extreme outside throughout and was evidently not ready. Favorito ran a game race and is improving. Dagmar tired early.
Scratched—37053 Glissando, 142; 36987 Imperious, 130.

Time, 24, 48, 1:14.

Winner—Ch. h. by Ducat—Rose of Magenta (trained by R. Wilson).
Went to post at 3:38. At post 4 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second driving. Byron Rose was lucky at the start and in his stride, but was reserved in behind the fast, early pace to the stretch, where he came through next to the rail and won going away. Money Muss and Sad Sam forced a terrific early pace and the former drew clear on the stretch turn and appeared like winning when straightened out, but tired right at the end. He is in good form and was best singlehanded. Yellow Tail was held together in the first half, made a surprisingly strong move in the last quarter and is very good. Sad Sam was overweighted and succumbed to the fast, early pace. Lady Kent was going well at the end. Bragg was hopelessly outrun.
Byron Rose, show, 1 to 5. Money Muss, show, 2 to 5. Yellow Tail, show, 4 to 5.

Winner—Gr. f. by Captive—Leora (trained by G. Miller).
Went to post at 4:02. At post 1 minute. Start fair. Won driving; second easily. Lizzie Rice got away running and led throughout, but was tiring at the end and barely lasted. Mi Reina, away poorly and crowded to the rail early, went around the field and closed up with a tremendous rush and was best today. Warte Nicht came along fast at the end. St. Winifride is improving, was always prominent and appeared like winning when a furlong out, but tired in the final sixteenth. Bell Reed is a pronounced quitter and was early discouraged. Mexicana was forced to her utmost in trying to beat the winner and was a contender up to the last sixteenth.

Went to post at 4:20. At post 3 minutes. Start bad. Won driving; second handily. Katie Walcott was lucky at the start and led throughout undisturbed. She has been considered a non-stayer, but is fast. Ulloa was poorly ridden. Donnelly waited a long time before making his move and Ulloa finished fast. Mission was also badly ridden and jerked up on the stretch turn, but finished going fast on his own courage. Rosarie made up ground too fast and tired in the stretch under a weak finish. July Gip was going well at the end. Windward was nearly left and made up some ground and can do better.

Winner—B. m. by Lamplighter—Tampette (trained by W. J. Logan).
Went to post at 2:01. At post 4 minutes. Start fair. Won driving; second handily. Julietta B. ran a good race, and under a strong ride held her field safe all the way home. Deveric also ran a good race, hung on gamely and will bear watching. Lathrop closed up strongly from a bad beginning. Cologne II. was used too much in the first part of the race and tired. Deveric was high in flesh. Julietta B. pulled up lame.
Scratched—36940 Trombone, 107.
Overweights—Deveric, 4 pounds; Pinebrook, 5.
Deveric, show, 3 to 2. Lathrop, show, 4 to 5. Dunsbro, show, 4 to 5.

37111 SECOND RACE—5-8 Mile. Purse $200. 3-year-olds and upward. Selling.

GOSSIP OF THE TURF.

Some eastern owner, whose name was not made known, has his eye on Ed Trotter's big sprinter, Scorio. The gentleman in question wants the speedy Chorister gelding for steeplechase racing. "Billy" Karrick was commissioned to get a price on the gelding, and asked Trotter to name his figures last Wednesday. Trotter set a price, but as he does not want to sell the star performer in his stable he named one which he thinks will put an end to the New York gentleman's desire to possess the gelding. Scorio would not be green at the jumping game. He was raced through the field at Chicago last summer and showed himself to be a good horse at the steeplechase game.

Durnell & Herz, owners of the most powerful stable now racing at New Orleans, intend to ship all their horses away in the next few days. They will send about half their lot of twenty-five or more to the Scoggan farm at Louisville, to be turned out until spring, and the other half they will race at the Los Angeles meeting, which begins January 31. Of the Louisville contingent several, including Lucien Appleby, Prince Blazes and Rolling Boer, will be fired, while McChesney, The Lady and the selling platers that the firm have accumulated, including Scotch Plaid, will go to Los Angeles.

J. C. Milam has received a telegram at Lexington, Ky., from J. S. Wadsworth, of Genesee, N. Y., stating he would ship to him to train this season three two-year-olds by the noted racehorse Nick, out of the famous mares Komuraski, Lady Disdain and Tuttt, all of which Milam trained for Wadsworth and gave them their racing records. They will swell Milam's stable this season to twenty-five horses.

Of the races that were run on the flat in England in 1902 there were 516 for two-year-olds, of which 442 were run distances under six furlongs, sixty-four of them six furlongs and upward, but under a mile, and ten of them a mile. In 1901 there were 508 races for two-year-olds and 497 in 1900.

Ed Trotter sold to J. J. Ogles last Wednesday, on private terms, the three-year-old filly, Nicolette. The filly, which is by Lieber Karl, is one of the lot which John W. Schorr sold to Sam Hildreth recently, Hildreth later disposing of her to Trotter.
